

Delegates Fees & Seminars Policy

Delegates to FPSE, BC Fed and other like events shall follow the guidelines as set out below:

- Executive members of the FSA have first right of refusal
- Attendance at all elements of the event is required and to be demonstrated through a report to the FSA executive
- A report is required for the next Words & Visions publication following the event
- Block voting may be required and will be discussed in advance or in caucus at the moment, directed by a senior executive member, probably the President or her/his delegate
- Members are requested to spread the attendance to all workshops and break-out groups
